MEMORANDUM FOR: Chief, Intelligence School

SUBJECT: Biweekly Activities Report #11
10 May - 21 May 1965

BRIEFINGS OF CIA PERSONNEL

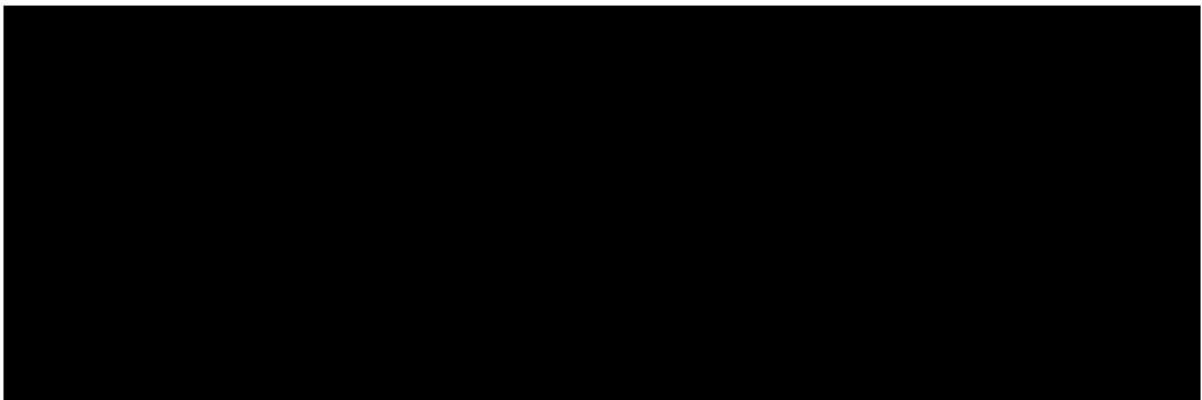

1. CIA Introduction: On 10 May, [REDACTED] gave this briefing for 16 new employees. 25X1A

2. CIA Review: On 11 May, I gave the CIA Review to only nine people. I might say that their attentiveness and interest made up for their small number.

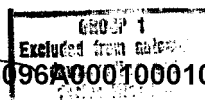

BRIEFING OF U.S. OFFICIAL

On 17 May, I briefed Ambassador William Tyler, the new Ambassador to The Hague. Ambassador Tyler is an old friend of the Agency and I have known him for many years personally since he was Counselor at the [REDACTED] Ambassador Tyler's briefing was sponsored by Chief, WE Division, [REDACTED] and this arrangement entirely eliminated the participation of OCR. Apparently, division chiefs can do this if they so desire, and I made no effort to inform OCR that the briefing was taking place and being arranged for in this manner, until after the briefing was over.

The briefing was held at a dinner at Martin's Carriage House. Unfortunately, we could not get a private room there, and so my briefing took the form of some quiet remarks to the General, while seated next to him at a rather sumptuous meal, and answering some of his questions. His main interest seemed to be in the plans for physical security which we followed in the Agency. He is building a new headquarters building and would like to incorporate some of our innovations--the handling of visitors, the processing of those going abroad, handling of press relations, etc. I am making some effort to obtain added information for him on this subject.
